

Ninety One Global Strategy Fund

All China Equity Fund

Blending human intelligence and machine learning insights to fully access the China markets.

Key highlights

All China approach

Multi-factor, style-agnostic approach to China equities, ready to tap into shifts in the market regime.

Access to the broadest opportunity set to maximise exposure to the best ideas in both mainland and offshore China.

Blended style

Our fundamental analysis blends growth, value, quality and momentum characteristics.

Well positioned to navigate style rotations and market volatility given balanced exposures to styles through the cycle.

Collaborative intelligence

Combined intelligence of machine learning alpha model and fundamental research.

Seek to generate risk-adjusted alpha through the cycle through bottom-up stock picking, outperforming by 4.5% annualised since inception<sup>1</sup>.

Why All China Equity now?

- Attractive valuations of Chinese equities, with dispersion vs. developed markets at the highest in history
- Magnitude and duration of current earnings cycle pointing to limit further downside. Forward earnings expectations look encouraging
- Sentiment near peak negativity with foreign ownership near historical lows
- Early signs of stabilisation with record level of share buyback and dividends

Forward price/Earnings ratio<sup>2</sup>

A share companies' annual buybacks (Rmb bn)<sup>3</sup>

Dividends paid out (Rmb bn)<sup>3</sup>

Why invest in the Ninety One All China Equity Fund?

All China approach

A holistic approach which includes China A shares, B shares, H shares and ADR for the broadest opportunity set and maximises exposure to best ideas.

Sector breakdown (%)<sup>4</sup>

Share class breakdown (%)<sup>4</sup>

Blended style agnostic approach

- Navigates markets that are inherently volatile with style rotations
- Well positioned for shifts in market regime
- For almost a decade, value and growth stocks have broadly moved in opposing directions through cycles. Getting access across the China equity universe enables investors to potentially benefit from a balanced exposure to styles in all market environments

Style leadership rolling 3 month returns<sup>5</sup>

Collaborative intelligence

- Collaborative intelligence of human and machine learning to capitalise on mispricings driven by behavioural biases
- Bottom-up securities selection supported by a wider 4Factor team and specialists across Ninety One

Proprietary machine-learning alpha model

- Scalable, repeatable
- Objective
- Identify non-linearities

Fundamental research

- Interpret information
- Identify key business drivers
- Forward-looking marginal change
